Mohit has been an integral part of our team since February 21st, focusing primarily on React Native development for the Gymble project. His dedication and commitment to his work have been commendable, and he has consistently demonstrated a strong understanding of React Native concepts and best practices.

Throughout his time on the project, Mohit has shown a proactive approach in tackling challenges and delivering high-quality code. He has effectively collaborated with team members, contributing to a positive and productive work environment.

Moreover, Mohit's willingness to learn and adapt has been evident, as he has quickly grasped new concepts and technologies relevant to the project's requirements.

Overall, Mohit's performance has been exemplary, and his contributions have played a significant role in the progress of the Gymble project. We are confident in his abilities and look forward to continued success working with him.
